Terms and Conditions of the Contract on Garment Adjustment

(Chemical cleaning, washing or an adjustment of a garment)

concluded between the Contractor

and

the Client (Customer)

According to §637 and § 653 of the Civil Code 40/64 Coll., as subsequently amended, the Contractor herewith informs on Client's inaccurate instructions for cleaning or washing of a garment handed over in order to be respectively treated. For these reasons trouble-free rendering of such service is above Contractor's operational as well as technical possibilities, which gives him the right not to conclude a contract of service. Since the Client insists on the rendering of the service, the Contractor abandons the above right. The Contractor shall not be held liable for any eventual defects or services on the product resulting from the dry cleaning or washing according to inaccurate instructions.
